1. From conversations with various guerrilla leaders in Central Java, source has the impression that they feel that the Republican leaders should consult them regarding their views on any proposed negotiations between the Republic and the Dutch.
2. Sukarno, Hatta and the other leaders could have escaped from Jogjakarta if they had desired to do so. The fact that they did not has created some mistrust among persons working with the guerrillas.
3. Most of the common people, however, still refuse to believe that Sukarno has been captured.
